FALL DECLINES.

Race for Delegate Laz Cruves, N. M., Sept. 24, 1906.

Editor Citizen: Sir. Through your columns I desire to thank many friends throughout the orritory for the kindness which has dictated expressions favorable to my andidacy upon the democratic ticket for delegate at the approaching election. In the enthusiasm of personal riendship, many have assured me that, profitable subjects were "Extension of it consenting to accept the nomination the School Suffrage to Women," and I would not only receive that honor.

If the nomina on was tendered me. I would accept This was "not politics," but it was only with reluctance that I brought myself even to this decision. Much to my surprise and to my no little amusement-it has been reported by friends of other candidates that Who had in the man been declared the many instances by the same parties,) to be too partisan, aggressive and uncompromising a democrat, am now said to be too friendly with the territoria republicans—and not a good democrat Much to my surprise, and to my regret, jeakoustes have been aroused parters to me most unexpected. I, who imagined that I knew some thing of politics in New Mexico, havarned something more. My ambition, if I had any, was to seure assistance for New Mexico in the vay of appropriations for reservoirs nals and water depositories to sanst securing statehood-and my desire would have been, if nominated, to make campaign along these lines and em-

BOILS & CARBUNCLES

These unwelcome visitors usually appear in the spring or summer, when the blood is making an extra effort to itself from the many impurities that have accumulated during the winter months.

Carbuncies, which are more painful and dangerous, come most frequently on the back of the neck, eating great holes in the flesh, exhaust the strength and often prove fatal. Boils are regarded by some people as blessings, and they patiently and uncomplainingly endure the pain and inconvenience under the mistaken idea that their health is being benefitted, that their blood is too thick anyway, and this is leature's plan of thinning it. The blood is not too rich or too thick, but is diseased—is full of prison—and unless relieved the entire system will suffer. The boil or carbuncie gives warning of serious internal troubles, which are only waiting for a favorable opportunity to develop.

Baneful Keep the blood pure, and it will keep the skin clear of all the irritating impurities that cause these painful, disfiguring diseases.

B. S. S. cares boils and carbuncies easily and permanently by reinforcing, purifying and and permanently by reinforcing, purifying and become and an aridding the system of all secumulated waste matter.
